

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Americans traditionally have volunteered their time, talent, and energy to help one another and their communities; and,

WHEREAS, The active involvement of citizens is needed today more than ever to combat growing human and social problems, to renew our belief that these problems can be solved, and to renew our sense of community; and,

WHEREAS, Volunteering offers all citizens the opportunity to participate in the life of their community and to gain new skills and widened horizons; and,

WHEREAS, It has been conclusively demonstrated time and time again that citizens, working individually and collectively, can make a difference; and,

WHEREAS, National Volunteer Week offers a special opportunity to publicly celebrate the accomplishments of the millions of people who volunteer and to encourage everyone to get involved:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 26 through May 2, 1987, as

VOLUNTEER WEEK

in South Dakota and April 29, 1987, in particular, as

and I invite all citizens to join me in honoring our volunteers, our greatest natural resource.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

ATTEST:

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
